No. 181 of 1st May 1871.—The following is republished for information and guidance in the Public Works Department:—

From Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council,—(No. 80, dated India Office, London, the 16th March 1871.)

Para. 1. In continuation of my financial despatch dated the 6th January last, No. 2, I have to request that the rate of exchange* therein fixed for officers' remittances and effects may be adopted by you in the recovery in India from civil engineers, mechanics, and others, of the portions of their salaries which have been made payable to their families in this country.

2. I take this opportunity of informing you that the privilege of making family allotments will, for the future, as a general rule, be strictly confined to the class of mechanics, boiler-makers, &c., who would probably find it very difficult to make remittances through ordinary channels. Special cases, however, will be considered and decided on their merits.

3. You will make the necessary communication to the Governments of Madras and Bombay.

BENGAL CIVIL FUND.

NOTICE.

The half-yearly general meeting of subscribers will be held at the Town Hall, on Wednesday, the 26th July next, at 11 A.M.

The following proposed amendments of rules will have to be considered :—

* Article 23.—After the words "consist of the first four of the following officers," insert the words "not being elected managers."

Article 4.—The following to be added:—

"It shall be optional to a subscriber to continue his payments at 'ordinary' or at widower rates, as the case may be, on account of any son who may, on his attaining the age of 21 years, be reported to the managers to be wholly incapacitated by reason of infirmity from earning his livelihood. Such payments must be continued up to the date of the subscriber's decease, and the managers must be satisfied that the infirmity was not produced by causes within the control of the invalid.

Article 30.—The following to be added:—

"Provided, further, that the managers may, under similar conditions as to medical certificates, admit to fund benefits, either in whole or in part, the son of a subscriber, even though such son shall have previously attained his majority, if he is wholly incapacitated from earning his livelihood, provided that subscriptions have been paid on his account under Article 4 up to the date of his father's decease. Should the managers decide to reject such an application for admission to fund benefits, they shall refund to the legal representatives of the subscriber, without interest, all subscriptions received on account of such incapacitated son from the close of his twenty-first year.

Mr. H. Beadon will bring forward for discussion the amendment of Articles 147 and 18 of the rules to enable annuitants and other members of the fund in England who are at present unable to transmit their votes in time to do so in future.

The proposed alteration in Articles 17 and 18 will be to substitute the word thirteen months instead of two, and to add the words "London Times" after the word "Punjab."

By order of the Managers.

H. L. HARRISON.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council received the assent of His Honor on the 20th March 1871, and having been assented to by His Excellency the Governor General on the 10th May 1871 is hereby promulgated for general information:—

Act No. V of 1871.

An Act to facilitate drainage in certain Districts of Bengal.

WHEREAS it is desirable that provision should be made for the better drainage and improvement of certain lands in the Districts of Hooghly and Burdwan, and whereas a certain scheme with plans and estimates for the drainage and improvement of such lands has been laid before the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and it is desirable that power should be given for carrying into effect such scheme, or some modification thereof; It is enacted as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act shall be called "The Hooghly and Burdwan Drainage Act."

II. The following words shall, for the purposes of this Act, have the respective meanings hereby declared, unless a contrary intention appear from the context:—

"The Commissioners" shall mean the Drainage Commissioners to be appointed under this Act:

"Proprietor of lands" shall be taken to mean a person having a perpetual tenure or interest, at a fixed rate of revenue or rent, in such lands entitling him to the immediate occupation thereof, or to the receipt of rent, from the ryots thereof, or from a tenant holding directly from him under a temporary lease.

III. This Act shall take effect in the said Districts of Hooghly and Burdwan on such day as the said Lieutenant-Governor shall by any order published in the Calcutta Gazette provide for the commencement thereof.

IV. Provided that the majority in number of the Commissioners shall always be persons qualified as aforesaid.

V. The Lieutenant-Governor shall from time to time appoint one of the persons so appointed Commissioners as aforesaid, to be Chairman of the Commissioners.

The Commissioners shall meet for the transaction of business once at least in every quarter. Such meeting shall be held upon such day and at such hour as the Commissioners shall from time to time determine. At every meeting of the Commissioners five members shall constitute a quorum.

VII. The Chairman of the Commissioners may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon request made in writing by three of the Commissioners, call an emergent meeting of the Commissioners.

VIII. The Chairman shall preside at every meeting of the Commissioners. In the absence of the Chairman, the Commissioners present at any meeting may choose one of their number to preside. The President of any meeting at which a quorum of the Commissioners shall be present, may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

X. Within one month after the Commission scheme to be laid before the Commissioners and published, the said scheme, plans and estimate, or some modification or alteration thereof, shall be laid before them, and the Commissioners shall forthwith cause a notification in the language of the district to be published in every village in which may be situate any portion of the lands to be affected by the works proposed in such scheme or plans. Every such notification shall be in the form in Schedule A, and may be published by pasting the same in some conspicuous part of the village, and at the Court of the Moonsiff within whose jurisdiction, and at the thannah within whose limits, such village is situate.

XI. The Commissioners may, at some meeting to be held not less than fifteen days after some such notification shall have been published, proceed to ascertain what proprietors shall have assented to the adoption of the scheme, and in case the proprietors of not less than one moiety of the bheels and swamps to be drained shall have assented to such adoption, shall proceed to consider the said scheme, plans and estimates, and all objections thereto; and may adopt the same, or alter and modify the same and adopt the scheme, plans and estimates so altered, or modified, or may disapprove or reject such scheme.

XII. In case the proprietors of one moiety of the bheels and swamps to be drained shall not assent to such scheme, but the proprietors of one moiety of the bheels or swamps to be affected by some portion of such scheme shall so assent, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to re-submit such portion of the scheme to the Lieutenant-Governor, and, with his approval, proceed thereupon in manner aforesaid.

XIII. In case the Commissioners shall adopt such scheme, plans and estimates or any modification or alteration thereof, they shall, within one month after such scheme, plans and estimates, or some modification or alteration thereof shall have been adopted by them, cause the same to be laid before the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and the said Lieutenant-Governor may sanction the scheme, plans and estimates so adopted or any portion thereof as to him shall seem fit.

XIV. The Commissioners may, with the previous assent of the Lieutenant-Governor, at any time re-consider any scheme, plans or estimates adopted by them, and add to or alter or modify the same; and when such addition, modification, or alteration shall have been adopted by them, they shall cause the same to be laid before the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and the said Lieutenant-Governor may sanction such addition, alteration or modification, or any portion thereof as he may think fit, and thenceforth the provisions of this Act shall apply to such addition, modification or alteration as if it had been portion of the original scheme, plans or estimates; and every such modification or alteration, after it shall have been adopted, shall be published by the Commissioners as to them shall seem fit. No such modification or alteration shall be adopted at a meeting at which the majority of the members present are not qualified as in Section IV is mentioned.

XV. No modification or alteration under Section XI of any scheme by which any lands other than those to be affected by some scheme theretofore published may be affected shall be adopted by the Commissioners until the same shall have been published for not less than fifteen days, according to the provisions of Section X, in every village in which may be situated any portion of the lands to be affected by such modification, nor shall any such modification or alteration be adopted unless the proprietors of not less than one moiety of such lands shall assent thereto.

XVI. After the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall have sanctioned any such scheme, plans and estimates, or some portion thereof, it shall be lawful for him to take proceedings under the provisions of Act X. of 1870, passed by the Governor General of India in Council, or any other law for the time being in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes, in order to obtain any land likely to be needed for the works mentioned in such sanctioned scheme, plans and estimates or portion thereof.

XVII. It shall be lawful for the said Lieutenant-Governor, if he think fit, to order the improvements specified in such sanctioned scheme, plans and estimate, or portion thereof, to be made by an officer to be thereunto appointed by the said Lieutenant-Governor, and, subject to the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, to order the advance for the purpose from the public funds of such sum of money as may be required for the purpose of making such improvements, and it shall be lawful for such officer to cause the works specified in such scheme and plans to be performed, and for that purpose by himself, his agents and workmen to enter into or upon any lands and to perform such works thereupon as may be required.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, at any time after the said works shall have commenced, by an order to sanction any alteration or modification of such scheme or plan suggested to him by the officer in charge of the works, provided it shall appear to him that by such modification or alteration the general character and scope of the work will not be altered or greater expenditure will not be incurred thereon than would be incurred in the work as originally sanctioned, and after such sanction, such alteration or modification shall be taken to be a portion of the scheme adopted by the Commissioners in substitution for the portion of such scheme thereby altered, and every such modification or alteration shall be published by the Commissioners as to them shall seem fit.

XIX. The officer in charge of the works shall, until the same shall be finally completed, once in every three months make a detailed report to the Commissioners of the progress of the works and the expenditure thereupon from the day up to which the next preceding report shall have been brought down, and the Comptroller of Public Works Accounts to the Government of Bengal, or other officer authorised in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, shall from time to time certify the sums advanced from the public funds for such works and the dates of the respective advances, and every such certificate shall be final and conclusive evidence of the sums therein stated to have been advanced, having been so advanced, and of the dates upon which they shall have respectively been so advanced.

XX. The sums so advanced shall be repaid by the proprietors of the land improved with interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum from the time of the respective advances.

XXI. The Commissioners shall, within one month after the completion of the works shall have been certified to them by the officer in charge of the works, proceed to apportion the sums to be chargeable against each of the proprietors of any land reclaimed or improved, and such sums shall be determined by the Commissioners with reference to the quantity of land in the possession of each which will be directly benefited by such improvements, and the benefit derived by such land.

XXII. The amount to be apportioned by the Commissioners against the proprietor of any lands which before the commencement of the works were to some extent fit for cultivation, but were improved by the said works, shall not in respect of such lands exceed the amount of the increased value which in the opinion of the Commissioners shall have been conferred on such lands by such works.

XXIII. The Commissioners shall, so soon as conveniently may be, after having apportioned the sums to be chargeable against any lands, make and publish a report, and shall therein state the several lands which they shall have declared to be chargeable, the names of the respective proprietors thereof, and the sum to be chargeable in respect of each, distinguishing in such report the lands which shall have been before the commencement of such works wholly unfit for cultivation, from the lands which were then to some extent fit for cultivation but were improved by the said works.

XXIV. If the Commissioners shall, for the space of twelve months after the completion of the entire works shall have been certified to them as aforesaid, or within six months after any report and apportionment shall have been returned to them for further consideration and revision under the provisions hereinafter contained, neglect or refuse to apportion the sums chargeable as aforesaid, or to make such report as hereinbefore is directed, the Lieutenant-Governor may appoint such officer or officers as to him shall seem meet to make or consider and revise such apportionment and report, and every such apportionment and report shall have the same force and effect as if the same had been made by the Commissioners.

XXV. Whenever any apportionment and report shall have been made in pursuance of the provisions hereinbefore contained, the Commissioners or person making such report shall cause such report to be published by affixing in every village in which may be any lands mentioned therein a copy of so much thereof as relates to such lands, and also a like copy at every Moonsiff's Court within whose jurisdiction, and every Police Thannah within whose limits, such village, or any part thereof, shall be situate.

XXVI. Any person who may deem himself to be aggrieved by any such apportionment may, within one month after such report shall have been published, appeal to the Commissioner of the Division against such apportionment, and such Commissioner shall cause notice of the day fixed for the hearing of such appeal to be published by affixing such notice in a conspicuous place in every village, and in the Court of every Moonsiff within whose jurisdiction, and at every Police Thannah within the limits of which may be situate any of the lands mentioned in such report, and such Commissioner shall hear such appeal, and the objections thereto of all persons interested, and may affirm the same or revise, vary or alter such apportionment as to him shall seem fit, or may return the same to the Commissioners or officer making the report and apportionment for further consideration and revision, and every such apportionment and report when revised, varied, or altered shall, so far as the same shall have been varied or altered, be published and be liable to appeal in like manner as the original report, and the decision of the Commissioner of the Division upon any appeal under this section shall be final and conclusive.

XXVII. Whenever the Commissioner of the Division shall affirm any report and apportionment, or whenever one month shall have elapsed from the publication of any report without any appeal therefrom having been preferred, the Commissioner of the Division shall pass an order declaring the proportion of sums chargeable against such lands to be finally determined, and shall cause such order to be published in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

XXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Collector of the district to serve a notice in the form in Schedule B. upon any proprietor of lands reclaimed or improved the proportion of sums chargeable against which shall have been finally determined, and who shall not have paid such proportion; and in case such proportion shall not be paid, nor an engagement entered into within one month after the service of such notice, the Collector shall make an order in the form in Schedule C., and thereby require the person named therein to pay the amount so apportioned.

XXIX. Any order of the Collector with reference to the term of payment by instalments under the provisions of this Act shall be appealable to the Commissioner of the Division if such appeal be preferred within thirty days from the date of such order.

XXX. Every sum to be payable by any person under any order or engagement under the provisions of this Act, if the same be not paid within one month from the day upon which the same is payable under such order or engagement, shall be recoverable from the proprietor of the land improved, with interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, by sale of such land under the provisions of Section XI. of Act VII. of 1848 passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council, as if the same were an arrear of Government revenue payable in respect of such land, and in case the sale of such land shall not realize the amount payable by him, then as a demand recoverable as arrears of revenue.

XXXI. In case any sum payable in respect of lands which had before the commencement of such works to any extent been fit for cultivation cannot be realized by the ways and means provided in Section XXX, so much of such sum as shall not have been so realized shall be a charge upon the lands which had theretofore been wholly unfit for cultivation, and shall be levied from the proprietors thereof as if the same were included in an order passed under the provisions of Section XXVII, and in such and the same proportions as the sums under the report aforesaid finally determined to be payable by each of such proprietors in respect of such lands bear to the entire sum charged in respect of such lands.

XXXII. It shall be lawful for any proprietor who shall have entered into an engagement for the repayment of any sum apportioned as aforesaid, at any time to repay to the Collector the entire amount of the principal sum which shall be then remaining due and interest thereupon up to the day of payment, and thenceforth the said agreement shall be terminated and all liabilities in respect thereof for principal or interest shall determine.

XXXIII. Every proprietor of lands charged with any sum under the provisions aforesaid, may, after he shall have paid or entered into an engagement for the same, recover from any person from time to time holding immediately from him any temporary lease or other subordinate tenure benefited by the works in respect of which such payment may be secured or made, an annual sum calculated at the rate of ten per cent. per annum upon such portion of such payment as shall bear to the entire payment the same proportion as the area of the lands of such person benefited by such works bears to the area of the entire lands of such proprietor benefited by such works. Such sum to be payable by equal instalments upon the days appointed for the payment of the rent of such tenure, and to be recoverable as if the same were an arrear of rent. Provided that such proprietor shall not be entitled to recover under this Section from any such person as aforesaid more than the entire amount of the payment which such proprietor has made or engaged to make, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. per annum, and that the sum annually recoverable in any case shall not exceed the increase in the annual value of the particular lands benefited.

XXXIV. Any person who shall have made any annual payment under the provisions of Section XXXIII or of this Section may recover from any person from time to time holding immediately from him a temporary lease or other subordinate tenure of any portion of the lands benefited by the works in respect of which such payment shall have been made such sum as shall bear to the entire payment so made the same proportion as the area of the entire lands in respect of which such payment shall have been calculated may bear to the area of the entire lands of such subordinate holder which shall have been benefited by such works. Provided that the sum annually recoverable in any case under this Section shall not exceed the increase in the annual value of the particular lands benefited.

XXXV. All outlets and water-channels, natural or artificial, which shall be altered, enlarged, excavated or cut under the provisions of this Act, and the construction and maintenance of embankments and of dams and works in the same, shall, save as hereinafter provided, be subject to the law for the time being in force regulating the construction and maintenance of public embankments and public rivers, channels, and outlets.

XXXVI. All lands which shall have been taken under the provisions of this Act for the purpose of the construction of works therein or thereon shall be vested in the Collector of the district for the time being in trust for the proprietors of the land reclaimed or improved.

XXXVII. PART II.—ROAD CESS ON LAND.

Valuation.

IV. Upon the commencement of this Act in any district, the Collector shall cause a proclamation to be issued, requiring every zemindar and holder of any tenure to lodge at the collector's office within one month a return of all lands comprised in his estate or tenure in the form in Schedule (A) hereto annexed, and containing the particulars in such form set forth. The Collector shall cause such proclamation to be published by affixing a copy thereof in some conspicuous place in the office of such Collector, in each civil court, and in the office of each subordinate revenue officer within the district.

V. The Collector shall, so soon as may be after the publication of such proclamation, serve a notice in the form in Schedule (A) for every estate, and also a notice on every holder of any tenure who may have been named in any return lodged in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, or in any register in the Collector's office; and every zemindar of such estate or holder of such tenure who shall, without sufficient cause being shown to the satisfaction of the Collector, refuse or omit, for the space of three months after service of such notice, to lodge in the office of such Collector such return as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be liable, unless sufficient cause be shown to the contrary, to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day after the expiration of such three months, until such return shall be furnished, or until the value of such lands shall have been fixed by the Collector as hereinafter is provided. It shall be lawful for the Collector, upon sufficient grounds for so doing being proved to his satisfaction, to extend the time for lodging any such return.

VI. From and after the expiry of three months from the service of any such notice, or any extension of such time under the provisions of the section next preceding, no zemindar or holder of a tenure within such district shall be entitled to sue for or recover any rent in respect of any land or tenure which shall be proved not to have been included in the return lodged by him, as aforesaid, nor to recover rent for tenures subsequently created or in excess of the sum mentioned in such return, without proof of the creation of such tenure or enhancement subsequent to such lodgment.

VII. Every fine for any omission or refusal to send in any return heretofore required, may be imposed by the Collector, and the amount of such fine accruing due from time to time may be levied without further confirmation by the same procedure as is prescribed by any law for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of revenue due on account of the estate in respect of which the return is not sent in.

VIII. Every order for the levy of a fine or of expenses passed by a Collector under the Act shall be appealable to the Commissioner of Revenue within one month from the service of the first process for the levy of such fine or expenses, and an estate shall be sold for the levy of such fine or expenses pending an appeal without the special order of the Commissioner.

IX. The Collector may, after the expiration of four months from the service of the notices mentioned in Section V., ascertain and fix, by such ways and means as to him shall seem expedient, the annual value of the lands within his district of which no return in the form in Schedule (A) showing the rents payable by the cultivating ryots thereof, or showing the value thereof as being under cultivation, shall theretofore have been lodged; and all expenses incurred in making such valuation shall be borne by the person by whose default such valuation shall become necessary, and may be levied from them as if the same were arrears of a demand under Act VII of 1868 passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council. X. Whenever the Collector may deem that any return of lands for which no rent is payable by cultivating ryots to the person making such return is untrue or incorrect, he may, by such ways and means as to him shall seem expedient, ascertain and fix the annual value of such lands; and in case the annual value of such lands so determined by him shall exceed by one-fifth the value stated in such return, the expense of such valuation shall be paid by the person by whom such return shall have been lodged, and may be levied from him as if the same were arrears of a demand under the said Act VII of 1868, passed by the said Lieutenant-Governor, and in all other cases shall be defrayed from the District Road Fund established under this Act.

XI. If no return is made, the Collector may proceed to ascertain the annual value of the lands held by such person, and in case it appears that the annual value of the land is greater than the rent which he pays, the expense of such valuation shall be borne by such person and may be levied as in the next preceding section is provided; and in all other cases shall be defrayed from the said District Road Fund.

XII. If the Collector shall see ground for believing that any return made under this Act other than a return mentioned in Section X. or required by Section XI. is untrue and incorrect, he may prosecute the maker of such return under Section 177 of the Indian Penal Code. And if the Magistrate convict the person so prosecuted, under the said section, the Collector may proceed to make a valuation of the lands mentioned in such return in the manner prescribed by Section IX. of this Act.

XIV. On the completion of each such roll, the Collector shall cause a copy thereof to be posted up at the mal outcherry of the estate to which such roll refers; and if no mal outcherry be found, then on some conspicuous place on the said estate.

(3)—Every cultivating ryot shall pay to the person to whom his rent is payable one-half of the said rate calculated upon the rent payable by him, or on the annual value, ascertained under the provisions of Section XI., of the land held by him.

He shall also cause to be served upon the owner, chief agent, or manager of such property, a notice informing him of the amount of the annual net profits so ascertained and determined by him. Any person who may deem himself aggrieved by such valuation made by the Collector under this section may, within one month from the service of such notice, appeal to the Commissioner of the Division, and the decision of the Commissioner on such appeal shall be final.

XXVIII. If the Collector be unable to ascertain the annual net profits of any property described in the two sections next preceding, he may, in such manner as may seem fit to him, ascertain and determine the value of such property, and shall thereupon determine six per centum on such value to be the annual net profits thereon. The expenses incurred under this section shall be borne by the person by whom, or the property in respect of which, the default occurred.

XXIX. Whenever any property assessable under this part may lie in two or more districts under the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, the notice to furnish a return under Section XXV. of this Act shall be served on the owner, manager, or chief agent of such property by the Collector of the district where such owner, manager

XXX. Whenever any property assessable under this part lies partly within and partly outside the territories subject to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, the return sent in under Section XXV. of this Act shall state the total annual net profits accruing from such property, and also the proportion of such profits which may reasonably be calculated to accrue in the territories subject to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

XXXI. When the rate of road cess to be levied in the district upon property assessable under this Part shall have been determined

And such amount shall be payable by such owner, chief agent, or manager to the Collector in two equal instalments, on the 1st May and 1st November respectively. Any instalment of cess which, having become payable under this section, shall not be paid to the Collector, may be recoverable as if the same were arrears of a demand under Act VII of 1868.

XXXII. The road cess payable in respect of any mine, quarry, tramway or railway, owned by the same person in two or more districts shall be payable to the Collector of the district where the owner or chief agent or manager may reside or have his chief place of business. And all moneys received on account thereof shall be apportioned in such manner as the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may direct, to the District Committees of the districts in which any part of such property may be situate.

The assessment fixed by the punchayet or assessors shall be final, except in cases where the said Superintendent shall increase the said assessment. Any person who may deem himself aggrieved by such increased assessment may appeal in writing, within one month of the publication of such increased assessment, to the Collector, and the order of the Collector shall be final thereon.

XLI. The district house cess payable in respect of any house situate in any village to which the provisions of either of the Acts mentioned in Section XXXVI, shall have been extended, shall be levied from the occupiers thereof half-yearly in two equal instalments, the first becoming due on the expiry of six, and the second on the expiry of nine months after publication of the assessment as aforesaid by such persons and by such ways and means as if the same were a rate or tax payable under the provisions of the Act extended to such place, town, station, suburbs, bazar, union or village, and the person liable to pay such district house cess in respect of such house were the occupier thereof; provided the limitation of six months prescribed in Section XLVII. of Act XX. of 1856 shall in respect to the house cess be extended to one year.

XLII. Every sum in respect of district house cess, which shall by any person or body of persons be realized under the provisions aforesaid, shall be with all convenient speed transmitted by him or them to the Collector, or to such person as the Collector may appoint to receive the same.

XLIII. In places other than those to which the provisions of Act XX. of 1856, or of "The Village Chowkeedaree Act, 1870," shall have been extended, the district house cess which may be payable in respect of every house therein shall be payable by the occupier thereof by two equal instalments, payable as aforesaid.

XLIV. Any such instalment, if not paid on or before the tenth day after it has become due and payable, may be levied in the manner prescribed for the levy of an arrear of village chowkeedaree tax in Sections XXV. to XXXIII. of Act VI. of 1870, passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council, and for the purposes of such levy the assessor shall exercise the powers of a punchayet under Section XXV. and of the collecting member of such punchayet under Section XXVI. of the said Act.

XLVI. Every person so appointed shall continue in office for two years, or until his successor shall have been appointed, and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

LXII. No member, officer, or servant of the committee shall be in any wise concerned or interested in any contract or work made with or executed for the committee; and if any such member, officer, or servant, be so concerned or interested, he shall be incapable of afterwards continuing to be a member of the committee, or holding or continuing in any office or employment under the committee, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of five hundred rupees. Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any person by reason only of his being a shareholder in any company incorporated by Act of Parliament or by Royal Charter or otherwise, or registered under any Act for the registration of Joint-Stock Companies, passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom, or by any Indian Legislature, which may enter into any contract with the committee, or execute any work for the committee, if such person shall, at or before the time of any such contract being made or tendered for, declare to the committee the extent of his interest in such company, and if an officer or servant of the committee, obtain the sanction of the committee to his continuing to be an officer or servant.

LXIII. LXIV. The committee shall thereupon forward the statement, which shall be so passed to the Commissioner of Revenue of the division.

LXV. The vice-chairman may in any subsequent year cause to be prepared a supplemental statement, and every such statement shall be subject to the provisions of the two sections next preceding with respect to the statement therein mentioned.

LXVI. The Collector shall in the month of June of every year prepare and deliver to the district committee a statement showing under separate heads the estimated proceeds within the said district for the year then next ensuing of the several road cesses at the maximum rates heretofore provided, and also of any sum which the Lieutenant-Governor shall have assigned to the said district.

LXVII. The committee shall at some meeting to be held in the month of July in every year, prepare an estimate of the income and expenditure of the committee for the year to commence on the first day of October then next ensuing, together with specifications and estimates of the works to be performed during such year, such works being a portion of, or included in, the works mentioned in the statement for the time being in force. In making such estimate the committee shall first determine the amount to be appropriated to office establishment and charges, next the amount to be appropriated to the repair of roads and other means of communication then existing, and afterwards the amount to be appropriated to the construction of new roads or canals; provided that no portion of the District Road Fund of any one district shall, save with the previous sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor, be appropriated for the construction, repairs, maintenance, or improvement of roads or bridges or any other means of communication within any other district.

LXVIII. Every such estimate shall be forwarded by the vice-chairman to the Commissioner, and the Commissioner may alter or vary the total amount thereby proposed to be expended. Provided always that it shall not be lawful for the Commissioner to alter or vary any estimate which shall have been approved by a number of the members of the committee, not less than three-fourths of the number of the members thereof present, at the meeting at which such estimate shall have been adopted.

LXIX. The total amount in and by any estimate proposed to be expended shall not exceed the estimated proceeds of the several road cesses hereinbefore directed to be imposed within the district at the maximum rates at which they are respectively leviable, together with any sum which shall have been placed by the Lieutenant-Governor at the disposal of the district committee.

LXX. LXXI. When and so soon as the amount for any one year proposed to be raised shall have been determined as hereinbefore is provided, the committee shall, after deducting therefrom the amount which may be placed at their disposal as aforesaid, determine the rate of cesses under this Act required to produce the residue, and such rates shall be the rates at which the several cesses shall be respectively leviable in the district for the ensuing year.

LXXII. So soon as the rate of cesses shall have been determined as aforesaid, the committee shall inform the Collector thereof, and the Collector shall cause a proclamation to be issued in his district declaring the same. Such proclamation shall be published in manner as in Section IV is directed. And the rates of cess at which the several estates within his district shall have been assessed shall be reported by every Collector to the Lieutenant-Governor, who shall forthwith cause the same to be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

Sub-divisional Committees.

LXXIII. In any district to which this Act shall be extended, the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may authorize the appointment of a sub-divisional committee for each or any sub-division or other portion of such district, and the sub-divisional executive officer shall be chairman of such sub-divisional committee.

LXXVII. All payments on account of the District Road Fund shall be made by the Collector out of the said fund upon cheques to be signed by the vice-chairman of the committee for sums under one hundred rupees, or by the chairman and vice-chairman for sums above that amount. When the vice-chairman may be absent, or from any cause incapacitated to sign cheques, the chairman shall sign cheques on behalf of the vice-chairman.

LXXVIII. The Collector shall submit to the committee in every month an account of his receipts and disbursements on account of the District Road Fund.

LXXIX. The committee shall keep regular and detailed accounts of the monies received or applied by them under the provisions of this Act and of their application, and such accounts shall be at all convenient seasons open to the inspection of all members of the committee.

LXXX. The vice-chairman shall, in the month of November in every year, prepare a detailed account of the receipts and expenditure of the District Road Fund during the previous year, and such account shall in the said month be examined by the vice-chairman together with three members of the committee appointed in its behalf by the committee. Such members shall have power to call for all vouchers and papers they may require, and may amend, correct, and pass the said accounts.

The accounts so passed shall be submitted to a meeting of the committee to be convened in the month of December for the consideration of such accounts.

LXXXI. Within one month after the accounts of the preceding year shall have been examined as aforesaid, the committee shall submit to the Commissioner a copy of such account and a report of the proceedings in such year, and such account and report shall be published at the expense of the District Road Fund in a Calcutta Gazette published in the month of January next following, together with such remarks thereon as may have been received from the Commissioner.

LXXXIV. After the expiration of five years from the completion of any valuation roll of an estate or assessment of houses under this Act, the Collector may cause a new valuation roll and a new assessment of houses, or one or both, to be prepared, and for that purpose may cause such proclamations and notices to be issued and served, and such returns to be made, and shall have such powers and authorities as are hereinbefore conferred for making the valuation rolls and the assessment of houses, hereinbefore mentioned.

LXXXVII. The costs of service of all notices by this Act required to be served shall be defrayed from the District Road Fund.

LXXXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, by an order published in the Calcutta Gazette, to make such rules for the performance of the duties of the district sub-divisional committees and of their respective officers, secretaries, clerks, and engineers, and otherwise for carrying out the purposes of this Act, and to prescribe such forms for the notices, returns, assessments, estimates, account books, and statements required by the provisions hereinbefore contained, and for which forms are not hereby given, as to him shall seem meet, and by any other order, to be in like manner published, to alter, vary or revoke any such rules or forms, or to substitute others in lieu thereof; and all such rules and forms shall, so far as they are in accordance with the provisions of this Act, have the same force and effect as if they had been inserted herein.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE funds available for improving roads and water communications in Bengal have been hitherto small: more especially has this been the case in districts remote from the great trunk roads. The imperial treasury is unable to increase its grants for Bengal roads; the local funds of Bengal districts are very small, and the income of those funds is not increasing. If there is to be any improvement in the internal communications by road and river in Bengal, the funds for such improvements must be raised from local sources by local rates. There has been much discussion as to the form which such local rating should take. The outcome of the discussion was expressed in a recent despatch from the Secretary of State for India to be—that the new cess for roads should be "levied equally without distinction and without exemption upon all the holders of property accessible to the rate." Immoveable property of all kinds has been generally considered as justly accessible to a road rate. The present Bill provides for the levy of a cess on all immoveable property as far as possible "without exemption and without distinction," except in favor of immoveable property already rendered liable to local rating by the District Municipal Act, and the District Towns Act, 1868. The Bill provides also for the constitution of local bodies which will administer the funds raised in each district.

3. If a sub-registrar holding any other office shall be required by the necessities of such office to leave his head-quarters for more than two days, he shall previously report to the registrar, who may thereupon appoint a competent person to be sub-registrar in his absence; if there be no such person, the sub-registrar shall retain his office.

11. The description specified in section 21 may be dispensed with, if the identification is complete without it, as where an estate is described as "No. 221 on the collector's rent-roll," or "a three-annas share in No. 221." But the following territorial divisions shall always be specified:—District (i.e. collectorate), pergunnah (or thannah, where pergunnahs do not exist), mouzah, and also the registration district and sub-district.

III.—OF TIME.

14. Every sub-registrar shall sit during certain hours, which shall be approved by the registrar, and shall be duly notified to the public.

15. When an application is made under section 24, the registrar may either register the document himself (in which case he will charge the extra fee prescribed as well as the penalty), or he may authorize any sub-registrar in whose office the document may be registered under sections 28 and 29, to accept it for registration on payment of the penalty. The date of presentation in such cases shall be taken to be the date on which the application is made.

16. In order to satisfy himself of the date on which a document of the kind referred to in section 25 arrived in British India, the registering officer may call for and inspect any letter which accompanied the document, or may receive other evidence, making a note, however, of the manner in which he satisfied himself upon the point.

18. No registering officer shall proceed to any house under section 31 except on payment of the fee for such visit, and if the house be at a distance of more than one mile from his office, he may also demand travelling allowance at the rate of four annas per mile.

V.—OF POWERS-OF-ATTORNEY.

19. Every registering officer shall keep a register of the powers-of-attorney authenticated by him, which shall contain the following headings:—serial number, date, name of the principal executing the power and his addition, name of the attorney and his addition, names of the persons (if any) who identify the principal, and nature of the power. At the end of the same book shall be an index to the names of all principals and attorneys, referring to the page at which the details of the power are recorded, and such index shall be written up at the end of each year.

20. The form of authentication of powers-of-attorney shall be as follows:—

(1)—When the principal executing the power appears at the registration office—

"Executed in my presence on the _____ day of _____ 18____ by A B, of _____, who is personally known to me (or whose identity was proved by the testimony of C D and E F), and recorded as No. _____ for 18____."

Seal and Signature.

(2) When the principal is exempted from appearance—

(a) "Having visited and examined the principal at his (or her) residence at _____, I am satisfied that this power-of-attorney has been voluntarily executed by him (or her), and I accordingly authenticate it under section 33 of Act VIII of 1871 and record it as No. _____ for 18____."

Date

Seal and Signature.

(b) Or when the examination has taken place under a commission—

"From the above report, I am satisfied, &c." (as above).

21. The registering officer shall satisfy himself of the identity of persons appearing to execute a power in the same manner as of persons appearing to acknowledge the execution of a document.

22. Powers-of-attorney given for general purposes are available under this Act, if they contain or imply an authority to appear in a registration office, and are executed in the presence of, and authenticated by, a registering officer or other officer named in the Act, and powers previously executed may be made available by the addition of a clause to that effect, and by re-execution in the presence of such officer.

23. Powers-of-attorney, whether given for registration purposes or not, may be registered under section 18, clause 7, but this is independent of their authentication required under section 33.

24. When a document is presented for registration which has been executed under a special power-of-attorney, the power shall be returned to the agent after the necessary particulars have been noted in the endorsement, as hereinafter prescribed; but if the power has been granted for registration purposes only, it shall be filed in the office. General powers shall always be returned to the attorneys who hold them.

VI.—OF SUMMONSES AND COMMISSIONS

25. The processes authorized by sections 36, 37 and 38, shall be executed through the revenue courts, and the peon's fee shall be regulated according to the rules for the service of processes in the revenue courts, and shall be credited to the revenue process fund.

26. If the summons be addressed to a person who is alleged to have executed the document, it shall require him to attend in person, or by agent; if it be addressed to any person whose evidence is required to prove a fact, it shall require him to attend in person.

27. The expenses of a witness shall be paid in at the time of the application for the summons, and shall be sent to the revenue officer who issues the summons, to be paid to the witness.

28. If any person without lawful excuse fails to comply with a summons, the registering officer shall give information to the revenue officer who issued the summons, who shall proceed under section 168 of Act VIII of 1859 to compel his attendance.

29. Application for a visit or commission under section 38 may be made either instead of, or after the service of, a summons.

30. If the person to be examined under section 38 be not resident within the district or sub-district of the registering officer, a commission shall be directed to the registrar of the district in which the witness is, who may re-direct it to the sub-registrar, who may, if he cannot personally attend, re-direct it to any officer of his establishment.

31. A commission shall ordinarily be issued by a registering officer to some member of his establishment, and the order shall be briefly endorsed on the document in words to this effect:—"A commission is hereby issued under section 33 (or 38) of the Indian Registration Act, 1871, to (name and designation of the officer) for the purpose of enquiring whether the within power (or document) has been executed by A B, by whom it purports to have been executed."

32. When the commission has been executed, the commissioner shall return the document to the office from which it was issued, with a report which shall be endorsed upon the document in the following terms:—"Having visited the residence of A B at _____, I have this day examined the said A B, who has been identified to my satisfaction by C D and E F, residents of _____ and the said A B admitted (or denied) the execution of the within power (or document)."

(Sd.)

This endorsement shall also be signed by the person for whose examination the commission has been issued, and by the witnesses who identify him.

33. A commissioner may examine witnesses in the same manner as a registering officer, and persons refusing to give testimony to a commissioner on being required to do so, shall be subject to the same penalties and punishments which they would incur for the same offence if committed in a registration office.

34. It shall be competent to a registering officer to examine the commissioner personally in his office touching any of the matters referred to by him or mentioned in his report, or the manner in which he may have conducted the investigation.

35. No registering officer shall proceed to any house or jail, or issue a commission under section 33 or 38 until a fee has been paid by the applicant; and the registering officer may, at his discretion, and if the place be not within a mile from his office, call upon the applicant to pay travelling allowance for himself or for any person to whom a commission is issued.

36. A separate fee shall be charged upon every signature which requires attestation, but travelling allowance shall only be charged for the actual distance travelled. Provided that where two or more persons who execute the same document reside together, only one commission fee shall be charged so far as those persons are concerned.

VII.—OF THE DEPOSIT OF WILLS.

37. A will shall not be received for deposit otherwise than in the manner laid down in section 42. A will received through the post office shall be returned to the testator bearing.

38. When a will is forwarded to any court under section 46, it shall be accompanied with a memorandum of the fee for opening the cover and copying charges, and it shall be the duty of the court to levy and remit such fee and charges to the registrar.

VIII.—OF PROCEDURE ON PRESENTATION.

39. On the presentation of a document for registration, the registering officer shall first satisfy himself that it has been presented at the proper office, and within the prescribed time, and by some person executing or claiming under it, or his representative or assign, or by the agent of any of them duly authorized under section 33, and that it bears the proper stamp, and is otherwise admissible. This will be certified on the face of the deed near the stamp in the following terms:—

"Stamp correct under article _____ of schedule of the General Stamp Act. Admissible under sections of the Registration Act, quoting sections 19, 20, 21, 23, 24, 25, 26, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, or as many of them as are required, and the certificate shall be signed or initialed by the registering officer or by his clerk.

Explanation.—Thus, if a document referring to immovable property be in the usual language of the district, section 19 need not be quoted; if it contains interlineations which are properly attested, is correct in its specification of boundaries, and is presented within four months at the proper sub-registrar's office by a person claiming under it, the sections quoted will be 20, 21, 23, 28 and 32.

40. After entry of the certificate under the preceding rule, the registering officer shall receive the fee or any fine payable under section 24, and enter the amount on the document close to the certificate prescribed in the last rule, and at the same time the requisite entry shall be made in the fee book.

41. The document shall now be endorsed to the following effect:—

“Presented for registration between the hours of and m. on the day of 18 at the office of the sub-registrar (or registrar) of by A. B., attorney for C. D., one of the claimants, under a power (No. for 187) duly authenticated by the sub-registrar of ”

(Sd.) A. B.

And this endorsement shall be signed and dated by the registering officer.

42. The amount of the fee paid shall be entered on the receipt for the document which is given to the person presenting the same under section 52.

43. The representatives of a person are—

(a)—The guardian of an infant.

(b)—The committee or other legal guardian of a lunatic or idiot.

(c)—Executors or administrators.

(d)—Heirs.

The right to appear shall be proved in the first three cases by the production (when necessary) of the appropriate legal documents; heirship shall be proved by evidence to the satisfaction of the registering officer.

44. It is impossible to lay down rules to enable the registering officer to satisfy himself of the identity of persons appearing before him; he shall require the best testimony procurable; and the testimony of persons known to himself, or of persons in a public position, such as zemindars, officers of the court, pleaders, &c., is always better than that of unknown and obscure persons. Any physical peculiarity or mark of deformity in a person should be noted in the endorsement.

IX.—OF PROCEDURE ON THE APPEARANCE OF THE PARTIES.

45. When a fine has already been paid under section 24, a second fine shall not be levied under section 34, nor shall more than one fine be levied on the same document.

46. The endorsement under section 58 shall be to the following effect:—
“Execution was admitted by—

1.—A. B. of Calcutta, Merchant.

2.—A. B. as aforesaid, agent for C. D. of Monghyr, Contractor, under a power-of-attorney, No. 97 for 1866, executed in the presence of the sub-registrar of Monghyr.

(Sd.) M. N.

The said E. F. admitted receipt of the consideration stated in the document.”

(Sd.)

Sub-Registrar.

47. The endorsement referred to in the preceding rule, and the evidence upon which the identity of the executant rests, shall invariably be recorded in the handwriting of the registering officer.

48. An oath shall only be administered when the registering officer doubts the truth of any verbal statement made to him. When evidence is recorded at length under section 63, it shall not be written on the document but on separate sheets of paper, and a note shall be endorsed upon the document of the fact of evidence having been so recorded.

49. When a document is presented which has only been executed by some of the parties to it, the other executants may attend and execute the document and admit their execution without the payment of any further fee, so long as the certificate of registration under section 60 has not been endorsed thereon; but if the registration of the document has been completed, it shall be presented afresh for re-registration and a second fee shall be payable therefor.

X.—OF PROCEDURE ON REGISTRATION.

50. When all the persons executing a document, or their representatives, assigns or agents, have appeared and admitted its execution, the document shall be made over to the copyist for the purpose of being entered in the register.

51. When two or more duplicates of the same document are brought for registration at the same time, it shall not be necessary to copy the document more than once in the register, but all the endorsements shall be written upon each duplicate.

52. All endorsements shall be made in red ink, excepting signatures, which may be made in black ink.

53. If the endorsements be made on a covering slip or rider, a note to that effect shall be endorsed on the document itself.

54. When the document has been copied, the registering officer shall proceed to make the certificate required by section 60, which shall be in the following form, and it shall be copied in the left hand margin of the register:—

Registered in Book	Volume
Date.	Seal and Signature.

55. The record of every document shall be compared with the original by some person other than the copyist, and both the copyist and the examiner shall append their signatures to the record. The registering officer shall then proceed to authenticate all errors in the copy and to make any notes which may be necessary under section 20 of the Act. He shall also affix his initials to each page, and at the end of the record certify it to be a true copy.

XI.—OF THE REGISTER BOOKS.

56. The register books shall have two margins. On the left hand margin shall be copied in red ink the value of the stamp and all the endorsements made in the office, in the centre shall be copied the deed itself in black ink, and the right hand margin shall be left vacant for notes under section 20 and rules 64, 65, 98 and 99.

57. The writing shall be distinct, and the books shall be kept neatly. No erasures with a knife shall be permitted, but mistakes shall be corrected with the pen, and such corrections shall invariably be attested by the registering officer.

58. Several volumes of Books I and IV may, if necessary, be kept in use simultaneously, when the documents registered are so numerous as to make this course necessary. Books II, III and V shall be continued from year to year until they are full, and in small offices where the number of documents registered is inconsiderable, the same volume of Books I and IV may also be used for two or more years.

59. Books III, IV and VI under Act XX of 1866, shall continue in use under those titles up to the 31st December 1871.

60. When a book is closed at the end of the year, a certificate to that effect shall be appended at the close of the written portion, and a certificate showing the number of pages written upon, shall be entered on the first page.

XII.—OF THE REGISTRATION OF COPIES AND MEMORANDA OF DOCUMENTS.

61. In addition to the bound volume of Book I, every registering officer shall keep a file volume, in which he will file copies or memoranda of registered documents which have been forwarded to his office under sections 64, 65, 66 or 67 of the Act. This volume shall have a distinct number assigned to it, like the other volumes of Book I, and it shall be bound at the end of the year. The entries in this volume shall be numbered consecutively, but in a series distinct from that of original registrations in Book I, copies being distinguished by the addition of the letter C, and memoranda by the letter M.

62. Copies shall be made on paper of the same size and description as the sheets of the bound books. Memoranda shall be drawn up in the form annexed to these rules.

63. Memoranda for sub-districts in another district shall be enclosed to the registrar of that district, together with the copy for his own office; but no memorandum need make mention of any property other than that which is situated in the district to which the memorandum is to be sent.

64. The date on which copies and memoranda are despatched under the last rule, shall be entered in the right hand margin of the book in which the document has been recorded.

65. Copies and translations of documents required to be filed under sections 19 and 62, shall be made upon hand-laid medium paper, and they shall be numbered in consecutive order, a reference being made to this number in the right hand margin of the page on which the translation is copied in Book I. The file shall be bound from time to time, when it contains a sufficient number of copies and translations to form a volume. For the purposes of this rule the requisite paper may be sold to the public at one anna per sheet.

66. Memoranda of decrees and orders which may be received after the 1st July 1871, shall be dealt with in the manner provided by Act XX of 1866, and the rules framed under that Act. Provided that it shall not be necessary for a registrar to send to a sub-registrar a copy of any memorandum under section 42 of that Act.

XII.—OF INDEXES.

67. The personal index No. I shall contain the following headings:—

- 1.—Name of person.
- 2.—Addition.
- 3.—Interest in the transaction, as purchaser, mortgagee, decree-holder, &c.
- 4.—Office of registration.
- 5.—Serial No.
- 6.—Book.
- 7.—Volume.
- 8.—Page.

68. The local index No. II shall contain the following headings:—

- 1.—Name of property or of mouzah, or, in towns, of street.
- 2.—Name of pergunnah or thanah.
- 3.—Sub-district in which the property is situated.
- 4.—Nature of the transaction, as sale of land, decree for possession of house, &c.
- 5.—Office of registration.
- 6.—Serial No.
- 7.—Book.
- 8.—Volume.
- 9.—Page.

[Note.—The office of registration will always be the office in which the index entries are made.]

69. Index III shall contain the same heading as No. I, with the exception of column 4.

70. Index entries shall be extracted at the time of the comparison of a document with the register, and they shall be posted into the index books of the registering officer on the same or, at latest, on the following day.

71. The indexes shall be kept according to the letters of the alphabet, and the entries under each letter shall be arranged according to the vowel of the first syllable, if the word begins with a consonant; or according to the second vowel, if the word begins with a vowel.

72. In all offices the index entries shall be made in English. If the documents are written or executed in English, the names of the persons and places shall be spelt in the same way in which they are written in the documents. If the documents are written or executed in a vernacular language, the spelling shall be regulated according to Professor H. H. Wilson's system of transliteration as modified by the Syndicate of the Calcutta University.

73. Great care is necessary in selecting the proper index word. In the case of Europeans, it shall be the surname, and for certain classes of Hindus, the family name, as Ghose or Bandopadhyay. But a mere title or designation of caste shall not be taken as the index word.

74. When a document is executed on behalf or in favor of Government, the index entry shall be made under G., Government—the name of the officer executing the document being entered in the column headed Addition; if on behalf or in favor of the Court of Wards, under W., Wards, Court of, and in the case of any other court, under C. The names of Companies shall be entered as they stand, the article only being omitted. Thus, Land Mortgage Bank of India Limited, under L.; Ganges Steam Navigation Company Limited, under G.

75. The name of a depositor of a sealed cover shall be entered in index I.

76. If more persons than one execute or claim under a document, their names shall not all be included in one entry in index I., and similarly, if more places than one are mentioned in a document, they shall not all be included in one entry in index II., but each name shall be entered in its appropriate place in the indexes. Provided that it shall not be necessary to enter in index II. the name of any place which is not situated within the district in which the indexing office lies.

[Explanation.—A document is executed by A and B conveying to C and D three parcels of land, x, y, z, situated in three districts, X, Y, Z, respectively. The document is registered, and a copy of it is recorded in each of the three districts X, Y, Z. In indexing the document, each of the persons A, B, C, D, will be entered in index I., under its appropriate letter, in every district. But the parcel of land x, which is situated in district X, will alone be entered in index II. of that district, and similarly the parcels y and z will alone find entry in the districts Y and Z respectively.]

77. If each parcel of immoveable property has not a distinctive name of its own, the name of the mouzah shall be given, and any further description added which seems to be necessary.

Examples:—

Rampur, Towjee No. 521; 2 annas.

Gorindpur, 30 bighas within specified boundaries.

78. Registering officers shall index all copies and memoranda of documents which are received by them in the same way as if the documents had been originally registered in their offices, but the entries relating to such copies or memoranda shall be made in red ink.

79. In sub-registry offices the index entries shall be made at once in bound books, or in loose sheets stitched together which shall afterwards be bound.

80. The copy of a sub-registry's indexes to be sent to the registrar under section 50, shall be made on separate sheets of paper for each subdivision of a letter as prescribed by rule 71, and the sheets shall ordinarily be forwarded to the registrar at the end of each month. But it shall not be necessary to send any sheet so long as it contains space for further entries. Provided that the index entries relating to the books for two separate years shall not be written on the same sheets.

81. Where the office of a registrar has been amalgamated with that of a sub-registrar, the copy of the sub-registrar's indexes shall be sent for safe custody to the office of the registrar of Calcutta, or to such other place as the Inspector-General may direct.

XIII.—OF THE PRESERVATION AND DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS.

82. The registry office shall be a central office of record for each district, and the books and papers of subordinate offices (which are not to be destroyed) shall be transferred to it from time to time under these rules. The original indexes to registered documents affecting immoveable property shall remain in the sub-registry offices, and shall be available for purposes of search under section 57.

83. The following records belonging to the period anterior to the enactment of Act XVI of 1864 shall be henceforward kept in the district registry office.

XIV.—OF REFUSAL TO REGISTER.

95. The reasons which may be recorded for refusal to register are as follows:—

(i) — That the document, if in a language which the registering officer does not understand, and which is not commonly used in the district, is not accompanied by a true translation and true copy. (Section 19.)

(ii) — That interlineations, &c., are not properly attested. (Section 20.)

(iii) — That the description required by section 21 is not sufficient to identify the property; or that copies of a map or plan have not been given. (Section 21.)

(iv) — That the document has not been presented by a person executing or claiming under it, or by his representative or assign, or by the agent of any of them. (Section 32.)

(v) — That the presenting agent's power-of-attorney has not been authenticated according to the Act; or that the alleged representative or assign has failed to prove his status. (Section 34.)

(vi) — That the fee or other expense due on the document has not been paid. (Section 78.)

(vii) — That the document is not stamped in accordance with any rules prescribed under section 5 of the General Stamp Act, 1869, and section 26 of the Court Fees Act, 1870.

[In these seven cases the document may, in the first instance, be returned with the endorsement "Returned for completion of description" or "for payment of fee," or as the case may be. If it be a second time presented for registration incorrectly, or if it be presented correctly but after the expiry of the time allowed, registration shall be refused.]

(viii) — That it is presented after the period of limitation. (Part IV.)

(ix) — That it is not drawn up in the manner, or with the materials, directed in rule B.

(x) — That execution is not admitted by all the persons who are alleged to have executed. (Section 35.)

(xi) — That a person by whom the document purports to be executed is dead, and his representative or assign denies the execution. (Section 35.)

(xii) — That a person purporting to have executed the document appears to be a minor, an idiot, or a lunatic. (Section 35.)

[In these five cases registration shall be refused at once.]

(xiii) — That the registering officer is not satisfied of the identity of any person appearing before him and alleging that he executed the document. (Section 35.)

(xiv) — That the registering officer is not satisfied as to the truth of the allegation that a person who executed the document is dead. (Section 35.)

(xv) — That the admitting agent's power-of-attorney has not been made in accordance with the Act; or that an alleged representative or assign has failed to prove his status. (Section 35.)

[In these three cases the registering officer may allow a postponement for a definite time, in order that satisfactory proof or a sufficient power may be procured. If proof is not given within that time, and cause for a further postponement is not shown, he shall refuse registration.]

96. The reasons for which the registration of a document is refused shall be recorded in Book II at the time the order of refusal is made.

MISCELLANEOUS.

97. Applications for the remission of fines under section 70 may be filed with the registering officer, but no such application shall be received until the fine has been paid. omission is presented for registration, a note of such rectification shall be made in the margin of the register in which the original document is registered.

100. Registering officers shall take care that their clerks have no dealings with the public except in their presence. They shall themselves receive documents which are tendered for registration, and when they are registered, shall return them with their own hands.

101. Documents of which the registration is not complete, and completed documents pending delivery, shall be kept separate. A list of documents which have been unclaimed for more than one month from completion shall be hung up in the office, and such documents shall not be returned unless a fine of one rupee be paid for every month or part of month beyond the first month during which they have been unclaimed. In such case the document may be delivered on payment of the fine to any person recorded as executing or claiming under it, whether or not he be able to produce the receipt. The Inspector-General may in his discretion remit the fine, when it appears to him that its exaction would be productive of injustice or hardship.

102. When a document occupies more than one sheet of paper, the seal or the signature of the registering officer shall be attached to every sheet unless some portion of the endorsement be written thereon.

These figures show an equilibrium between the receipts and the grants for the six civil departments of the provincial service. The only heads under which the grants fall short of the imperial assignments for the preceding year are 'Printing' and 'Police.' In both these departments considerable economies have been found practicable. The apparent reduction in the grant on account of 'Jails' is due to the revision of the jail profits system. The receipts from that service are diminished by an equal amount, and the real net assignment remains about the same as in 1870-71. In the growing departments, 'Education' and 'Medical,' the grants for 1871-72 in one case

RIVERS THOMPSON,

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 6th June 1871.—The following Resolution, this day recorded by the Lieutenant-Governor, is published for general information:—

Read again the following Resolutions recorded by this Government on the subject of the budget estimates of the Jail, Registration, Police, Educational, Medical, and Printing Departments, for the year 1871-72.

RESOLUTION.—The necessary allotments for the year 1871-72 have now been made to the various departments which have been transferred by the Government of India to provincial control.

slightly and in the other considerably exceed the grants of the preceding year.

Equilibrium has been obtained by devoting the proportion of savings of the past year assigned by the Government of India to the services of the present year, and as there will be no such grant from the Imperial Government in any subsequent year, the Lieutenant-Governor hopes that all heads of departments will do their utmost to keep well within the sums allotted to them.

No new provincial taxation has been proposed for the current year. But the Lieutenant-Governor cannot disguise from himself the fact that additional provincial income of one kind or another must be provided for the year 1872-73 if the Government is to do its duty by Bengal.

If there is so far no deficit on the total of the six civil provincial departments, a heavy deficit must be allowed under the head of 'Public Works,' in the sense that the available funds fall very far short of the requirements of the province. But it is obviously inexpedient to make proposals for spending more money than is available, and therefore the grant to public works has been set down at 34 lakhs, that is, it is fixed at the total sum available after providing for the civil departments. The detailed budget for the Public Works Department is being framed on the basis of this grant. It is to be observed, however, that ordinary repairs and establishments will absorb upwards of two-thirds of the grant, so that the sum available for works will be very small. Necessary works already in progress will be carried on as far as possible; but His Honor fears that the means of the current year may not permit the prosecution of either civil buildings or roads with such vigour as he should have wished.
